

I'm opposed to the proposed FCC rules that will allow greater concentration of media control, because this concentration is reducing the quality content of media programming, and it's threatening the free and independent press that is the lifeblood of democracy. The airwaves are supposed to provide diversity of views. Your move to allow cross-ownership of media will do the opposite. Don't do this!